

50 Recommended Reading Books for Year 3

We have carefully selected books that will hopefully capture your child's imagination. This list contains a description of the book so that you and your child are able to choose your favourites. While your child is still learning to decode (link letters and sounds) these books should be read to your child, these are 'read together' books. Once your child has moved onto blue and grey phonics books in class, they will be able to start to read some of the books listed below by themselves.
