

Maths To help you practise your place value, have a go at some of these dice games: Nice or Nasty Challenge someone at home to play against you. If you don't have a dice, there's an online one here: Online Dice	English – Persuasive Writing  “It is impossible to live without electricity.” Do you agree or disagree? Consider how people used to live in the past. Think about your life today – what could you no longer do if there was no electricity? What would the world be like without it?	Science  Choose one of: Thomas Edison, Nikola Tesla, Alessandro Volta or Michael Faraday. Create an interesting biography type fact-file. Include as much information as you can. What difference have they made to the world?	Science Look at the different equipment around your home that uses electricity. Rank the items in order of how important they are to your day-to-day life (from most to least important). Think about the following: How did you choose the two most important items?
PE As a school we know the importance of keeping fit and healthy! We would like you to try one of these activities with your friends and family. If you are feeling really energetic you might like to complete more than one! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Exercise with your family - e.g. go on a walk, bike ride, ice skating, swimming...</li> <li>- Create an obstacle course - how quickly can you complete it?</li> <li>- Make your own orienteering course for your family to solve.</li> </ul> Record in your home learning books which one/s you did.		 Year 6 Home Learning Grid Autumn 1 Over this half term, choose at least 4 of the activities from this menu to complete. Helpful links for these tasks are available on the Year 6 Class Page. We would like everyone to do the tasks marked  Don't forget to practise your spellings each week as well.	RE Identify and explain what religious and non-religious people believe about creating a better world and where they get their ideas from. This can be presented in whatever form you would like: PowerPoint, a written explanation, a poster – the choice is yours!
Computing Use the following link: How the Internet Works Read through the information then create a flow chart to help explain the process to somebody who does not understand how the internet works.	History Find a WW2 ration recipe (ideas on the links), record the recipe and make the food item to share with your family. You could photograph this and write a review of how it compared to modern-day foods. Alternatively, write a WW2 meal plan for your family for a day. Retro Recipes Eating for Victory World War 2 Recipes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Alternative: Visit the Nicholas Winton Memorial Garden – more information on the Y6 class page.</li> </ul>	Our Class Values We have been discussing respect: respect for one another, ourselves and property. We would like you to do an acrostic poem to show what respect means to you. You may choose to write this in your book or type it and stick it in.	PSHE Choose from one of the 'Rights of a Child'. Create a poster to promote awareness of this right. Examples:    